Colin Ogg joins First In Restoration as Director of Operations

Experienced project manager Colin F. Ogg has joined First In Restoration as Director of Operation.

Ogg has a well-earned reputation for careful execution, working to people and an instinct for getting complicated projects across the finish line. In May 2026 he was chosen for inclusion in the prestigious “Marquis Who’s Who.”

“We are very pleased to have Colin bring his experience to the team at First In Restoration,” said First In Restoration founder David King. “He is a great addition to the tremendous team we continue to build.”

Ogg most recently served as director of operations at a Stone Mountain firm, where he handled restoration, resurfacing and renewal across the Atlanta area. He stepped into the operations role after leading sales and marketing for the company.

Before joining the restoration world, he served in senior roles at Sabra Property Management, the Heartland Food Products Group, Royal Cup, the Kennedy Building Group, DMS Technology, the PEM Real Estate Group, Abbey Residential and the Mayo Group.

Ogg grew up in California and earned a bachelor’s degree in accounting and business management from Cal State East Bay and a master’s degree from the University of California at Berkeley. He also holds a paralegal certification from the University of Washington.

He is an active member of the Atlanta Apartment Association, the Atlanta Association of Legal Administrators, and the International Facilities Management Association.

A gifted musician who plays piano, flute, violin and harp, he is founder of BellaNota Strings, an ensemble group that specializes in live music entertainment for events. He currently serves as director of music and congregational worship at Lawrenceville First Baptist Church.
